

EURON Mobility grant

Applicants are expected to spend a period of maximal three months at a EURON partner university for the purpose of methodological training or a joint project. There is a preference for newly established collaborations or initiatives. The exchange normally has to start within 6 months after submission (between 15 December – 15 June). We will reevaluate this period in accordance with covid-19 travel restrictions. The mobility grants cover travel and accommodation costs for up to 1.500 EUR.

Application deadlines: biannually – on 15 June and 15 December.

Please complete the following application form and submit your application (pdf format) via email to the EURON Office (secr.euron@maastrichtuniversity.nl.)

1. Applicant details

Surname:

Name:

Date of Birth:

Private Address:

Work Address:

Tel.:

Email:

Start of PhD Education:

(Expected) Date of PhD defence:

2. Statement of supervisor

Name:

Institute:

Department:

Confirms here with that is registered as a PhD student at the aforementioned institute.

Short statement of motivation:

1. Address benefit of training stay for PhD student:

2. Is this part of an ongoing collaboration or a new initiative?

_____ date

_____ name and signature of supervisor

3. Title of the proposed project

4. Description of proposed project during training stay (500 words max. To be completed by the PhD student).
Specifically address the added value of the collaboration and the methods to be learned.

Duration of planned Training Stay:

Exact Dates of planned Training Stay:

5. Statement on motivation for intended training stay (250 words max. To be completed by the PhD student)

6. Title and description of your PhD project (250 words max. To be completed by the PhD student)

More information:

You will be acknowledged of the result of your application within 2 months after submission
Please note that you will be required to hand in a report after the completion of your training stay to the EURON Office to give feedback about their experience and what the stay has brought them.
In addition, EURON expects you to present your results of the collaboration at the annual EURON PhD days.
Your stay at the host group must be completed during the year that follows the deadline of your application. Preference will be given to PhD students who intend to conduct methodological training for implementation in their own research, and/or with the intention to initiate research collaboration between the home and host research groups.

For further information and enquiries, please contact the EURON Office:
secr.euron@maastrichtuniversity.nl